WinePak®

Your Global Partner In Packaging

“In today’s world of supply chain failures, getting glass for bottling is challenging. There’s nothing worse than discovering that a glass bottle I have used before and want to order for the next bottling is no longer available. We are a small winery, producing 2,000 cases of ten different wines, and we have a total of seven different bottles. The folks at WinePak do their utmost to satisfy our bottle needs. If it looks like one bottle will not be available due to world-wide shortages, I always get a notification that there may be a problem with that glass mold and they immediately offer alternatives.

Never once have we been disappointed!

Glass shortage is an industry-wide problem and WinePak always seems to come up with a solution. I couldn’t be happier with my choice of glass supplier!”

Choose Strength in Supply, Resources and Reach.

Dedicated to delivering reliable customer service, award winning custom design, and unparalleled access to the highest-quality packaging from domestic and international sources, TricorBraun is expanding to consistently provide you with the best support in the industry.

WHO IS TRICORBRAUN

With over 40 global locations, TricorBraun connects over 9,000 customers with over 800 suppliers globally.

We are WinePak

TricorBraun WinePak is a premier packaging distributor supplying a broad variety of packaging components for the wine industry. With locations throughout North America, we provide access to the highest quality wine and spirits glass from multiple domestic and global sources. We also offer private and stock molds, full decorating services, capsules, STELVIN® closures from Amcor, repacking capabilities, enhanced design and engineering services, and the strongest sales and customer service support in the industry.

MULTICONTINENTAL SOURCING STRATEGY

At TricorBraun, we focus on reliability and global access to supply for our customers. Through our multicontinental sourcing strategy and partnerships we are able to mitigate the circumstances that potentially cause disruptions, allowing for dependable and consistent service. Our global footprint allows for mold duplication of common molds, increased capacity, and flexibility for quick movement in the event of either economic or plant disruption. This creates a depth of supply partners and support that is unparalleled within the wine industry.

QUALITY COUNTS

TricorBraun WinePak's Quality Assurance program sets a new standard in the industry by allowing us an unparalleled ability to help our partners enhance profitability and maximize bottling line efficiency. Our experienced staff carry out our robust quality program—domestically and globally—to thoroughly and meticulously inspect product, ensuring orders arrive safely and on time.

OUR PEOPLE

Packaging is a process with many variables. Fortunately, you can count on TricorBraun WinePak Packaging Consultants to meet every opportunity and address every challenge with an abiding passion. Our knowledgeable team is committed to taking the complexity out of packaging, offering the options and services our customers need to operate effectively and efficiently.

WHY WINEPAK

We simplify packaging procurement so you can focus on what you do best. Our experienced Packaging Consultants can guide you through our remarkable range of products and services, taking the complexity out of the design, packaging and distribution process. This frees you to deliver your wine with exceptional efficiency and confidence.

SERVICES

STOCK AND CUSTOM PACKAGING

We know packaging. We'll help you design and develop a complete packaging solution tailored to your business' specific needs. Our skilled team of graphic designers, structural designers and packaging engineers can help you realize your vision. Whether you're looking for stock or custom, we'll provide you with exceptional packaging, expert guidance and a competitive edge.

REPACKING

Repacking is an easy step when you have the right system. In addition to sourcing the right bottles for your wine, WinePak has a state-of-the-art repacking system to neatly pack your bottles in custom cartons. Our system automates this time-consuming and labor-intensive task with speed and efficiency while keeping your shipments complete and on schedule.

LOGISTICS & WAREHOUSING

Our packaging logistics make sure your bottling components go where you need them, when you need them, in the most efficient and cost-effective way possible. We offer more available warehouse space than anyone else in the industry and in multiple locations throughout our service regions. Our barcoded inventory and enterprise resource planning system, which closely tracks inventory levels, enable us to provide your components on a just-in-time basis.

OUR PRODUCTS

In addition to a complete line of traditional bottles in all classic shapes, capacities and colors, we supply unique bottle styles, as well as small volume and large format bottles ranging from 375 ml to 18 liters.
